TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 21.

Hon. James Barbour.

[Fincastle Herald ] The following letter addressed to Major Jas. McDowell, chairman of the county executive committee was received from Hor. James Barbour in response to an invitation to address our people last court day.

CUIPEPER Sept. 6, 80 Destrict I receive so many calls to address the people that I have not the physical power to meet a molety of them. For many reasons I would be glad to be with the democratic people of Botelourt, but an engagement in the interest of our retty - which I cannot forego-renders it imposs be for me to be with you on the 13th. I trust that my isbors for your cause may not be sitogether fruitless, although not directly on your field. I am a resdjuster, and was one when it e at a public man something to be one in the last one, two and three years many have been trangit to our ranks, and we are now a controlling majority of the State But I have faith enough in my principles to believe that we can win on that issue and preserve our national democratic pinciples too. hose who seek to separate the democratic readjuster from the democratic party may injure the dim cratic party for a while, but they wall far more radically and permanently injure the readjustment cause in Virginia. Men like you and I will have to rescue the cause of readjustment from the perils in which its overfearful friends may place it I trust the conference at sich mond on the day after your court day will result in such conciintory action as will unite all true democrts in Virginia and not only secure to Hancock and English the vote of Virginia, but to Virginia the power and influence in the National Government which has been bers and now again ought to be hers. It no arrangement for a union of all democrats on one licket is then effected, I do not doubt that a sufficient number will support the ticket nominated by the May convention at Richmond to put its 'u cass beyond danger. I will endeavor to be in your section during the canvass, and will take the liberty of conferring with your committee.

I write in great haste, as I am about to start

Yours truly, JAMES BARB TR.
